“In An Instant….”
Haiti 2010 Earthquake Recovery

Gwendolyn T. Dean, MD
INTERNATIONAL Child Health / Survival
Board Certified Pediatric Consultant

Day One

- January 29, 2010
  - 863 miles-about 13 hours 30 minutes
  - Departed NOLA 12:30 PM
  - Rested in Four Points Sheraton Hotel for one hour Tallahassee, Florida
  - Departed in a driving rain 12:30 AM January 30, 2010
  - Arrived 8:55 AM National Jet Terminal Fort Lauderdale, Florida with 9:00 AM departure for PAP Haiti

Day One

- Arrival PAP 10:30 AM; Flight donated by Kenneth E. Behring founder of Wheelchair Foundation
- Deskan Restoring Hope, Inc
- Team of ten (10)
  - Joan Liverpool, MD, EdD, RN
  - Charles E. Liverpool, MSA, Reporter
  - Monica, RN
  - Alexander, Orthopedic Surgeon
  - Marie, RN, medical student
  - Prosline, translator, mental health
  - Quanisha, High school/College freshman
  - Gwendolyn T. Dean, MD, CPE pediatrician
  - Beatrice, local liaison

Day One

- Our 1st patient January 30,2010
  - Adult female
  - Injured during the quake January 12, 2010
  - Persistent right knee pain
    - Diagnosis
      - Torn Medial Meniscus
      - Knee support bandage and pain meds

Day Two

- Referred by Dr. Adolfo, Beatrice's brother in-law to Dr. Eddy Delaleu, Operation Hope
  - Dr. Aucher, Medical Director, Adventist Hospital Daquine in conjunction with Loma Linda University, USA
    - Option #2-Clinic A 114, Lamartiniere, Rue Lambert, Rue St-Surin, Petion-ville, stay in clinic
    - Contact persons Jean 3454-9158; Viques 3933-4258
    - 2 Surgeons; 1 GP
  - David Canther, Pastor and President of Active Community Teams Serving together (ACTS)

Day Two

- Initial meeting with Dr. Eddy Delaleu (honorary Doctorate of Divinity)
  - Mobile clinic in southern Haiti expectation to serve 1000, service needed for 10,000.
  - Phase A
    - Earthquake survivors seeking medical care
  - Phase B
    - Outreach

Day Two

- Create a moderate sized campus Operation Hope in partnership with ACTS
  - Housed in tents
  - Two (2) showers one inside and one outside
  - ACTS has taken the responsibility for a feeding program for guests and hospital
  - Guests instructed to bring all the food needed to sustain yourself, one hot meal, vegetarian, provided in the evening.

Day Two

- Self-sustainability of volunteers reduces complaining about conditions, volunteers also share in the cost of transportation.
  - $250 per person for seven (7) days for logistics and to keep costs low.
  - Teams are medical
  - Interfaith
    - Begin and end the day in prayer

Day Two

- Youth and college students
  - Empowering youth with a purpose- Operation Hope
  - Supported financially by Ambassador Xian Chi
- Inclusive Teams
  - Housed in a tent the size of a football field

Day Two

- My first patients
  - Five (5) month old male in cardiopulmonary arrest.
  - History of fever, cough previously prescribed broad spectrum antibiotic
  - Deceased

A Day in Port Au Prince

- Must be able to interact with others
- On site clinic not opened on some days.
- Daily mobile clinics in the villages of Haiti-transportation permitting
- Debriefing daily at 7:30 PM
- Needed forms of transportation
  - Vans, buses, 4-wheel drive and mobile clinic unit.

The Line Never Ends

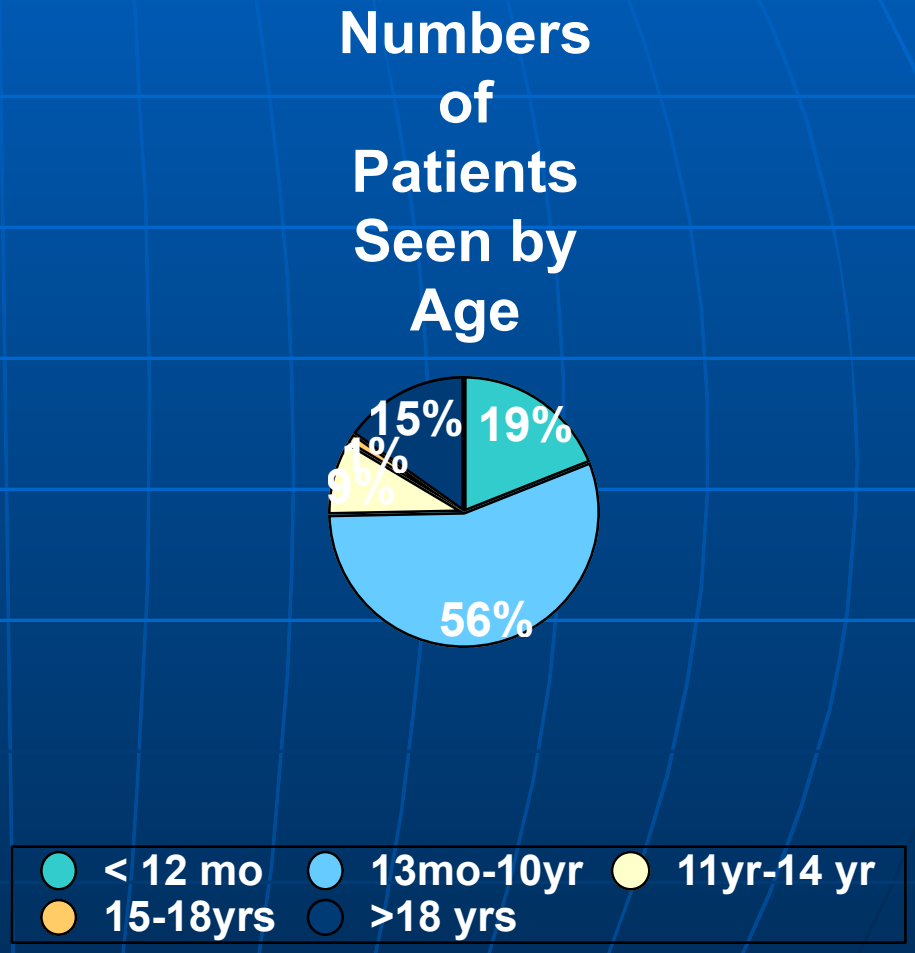

A Day in Port Au Prince

- Hospitals are saturated after 5 PM
- ACTS and Operation Hope assist in covering hospital personnel gaps
- Loma Linda University provides permanent staff
- International volunteers divided into teams of eight (8)

Eighty Patients

- 38 % of the population of Haiti is < 18 yrs of age
- By age
  - 15 < 12 months
  - 44 aged 13 mo-10yrs
  - 7 aged 11yrs-14 yrs
  - 1 aged 15-18 yrs
  - 12 aged >18 yrs

Dehydration and Malnutrition
Doctors Without Borders Feeding Stations

Operation Hope

- Operation Hope for Children of Haiti (OHFCOH)
- Dr. Eddy Delaleu, DD, President, Founder, and Chief Executive Officer (OHFCOH)
  - Inception in 1994
  - Dr. Delaleu served approximately six years in the US Armed Forces
  - Educator, served as the Coordinator of Student Affairs (COSA) at Paul Robenson High, New York City schools.
  - http://www.delaleuforhaiti2011.com/

Haitian Child Post – Amputation for a Crush Injury

ACTS

- One (1) week long commitments
  - Continued sustainability and the need to make a connection to the vision.
- Volunteers bring supplies with them
- Website
  - www.actswr.org
- Donated air transportation
- Native Haitians work as volunteers

We are all equals
at the foot of the cross.

